Barry,
You're really a clown so you're a sweet one. You've been really for funny. You've always made me laugh in math. Thanks for great help and for trying to explain things to me. I'm glad I have a
smart guy like you sitting in front of me. You're always a help in my math class and also in my summer class next year so you can help me!
Take care.
Love, Linda Kurani.

Baby,

Hi, there. I'm really glad that I met you this year (you're a total flirt)
but I think it's funny. (joke joke) Thanks
a lot for taking me to that concert and for stealing my comb. Why don't you do it more often? I'm just kidding. I don't see how I'm going to fill this whole page but since you insisted I guess I will. (It's going to be hard because there isn't much to talk about you) ^{Just kidding} I hope you have a really great summer with summer school and all. Maybe you can include me in your summer. You know call me up or some thing. Unless you meet some really sexy chick in summer school. (Which I doubt) I think that's enough jokes even though they're not funny. Have a great summer and I'll see you next year. P.S. Stay like you are.

(sweet)
Love ya always

When Susan Fisher took the job with Lantz & Weston, she thought $41 a week was not much for one of her skill, but by the end of the first day, she questioned whether she was worth it a week, much less $41. She could type, if needed, but she wasn't good at checking her work. That led her $42, $47.50, was typed as $42, $47.50. The boss thought that was OK. She asked for "Jones" and "Joan" in a letter, and the boss found that, too. She was sure she had left her brain at home that day, "If they will give me one more chance," she thought, "I'll show them." So this was a job she liked!

The Fall Student Council met weekly to coordinate many school activities. Their energy and efforts were spent working with students, faculty and parents. Dances, Spirit Week and holiday activities, student government day, PTSA functions, fund raising, budget, and assemblies were only a few of the items often appearing on the Monday night agenda.

These elected officers also acted as a link in the communication chain between the students and the school and district administrators through the discussion of plans, policy, school, and student needs. It was a busy term of service.

The goal of the Yearbook Staff is to produce a yearbook that will be liked and remembered by the other students at Prospect. Accomplishing this requires many hours of work not only from the technical standpoint but also in coordinating the staffs' efforts with photographers, athletics, and the advisors of the various clubs and commissions at Prospect.

Belonging to the Yearbook Staff is not all work and no play. Evening meetings were more social than work, and after deadlines everyone met at the pizza parlor for a celebration. And, as in any commission, there were fund raising activities, such as selling suckers and advertisements.

Spirit

Cheerleaders

Members Include: TOP ROW: Denise Dyer, Patti Muentz, Ginger Diffenderfer. MIDDLE ROW: Bill Haynes. BOTTOM ROW: Terry Houle, Becki Johnson, Sue Anderson, Anna Juarez, Lori Farrell.

Spirit was boosted this year by our successful Cheerleaders. Along with the first male cheerleader at Prospect, they won several routine and spirit awards at summer camp and continued their drive through the year's sports' events. Their bubbly smiles and continued support at games and rallies are only two things for which we owe thanks to this hard-working dedicated group.

Song Girls

Members Include: FRONT ROW: Tracy Medefesser, Noreen Kelley. BACK ROW: Sue Muentz, Jill Palmquist, Tera Bates, Lois Sakamoto.

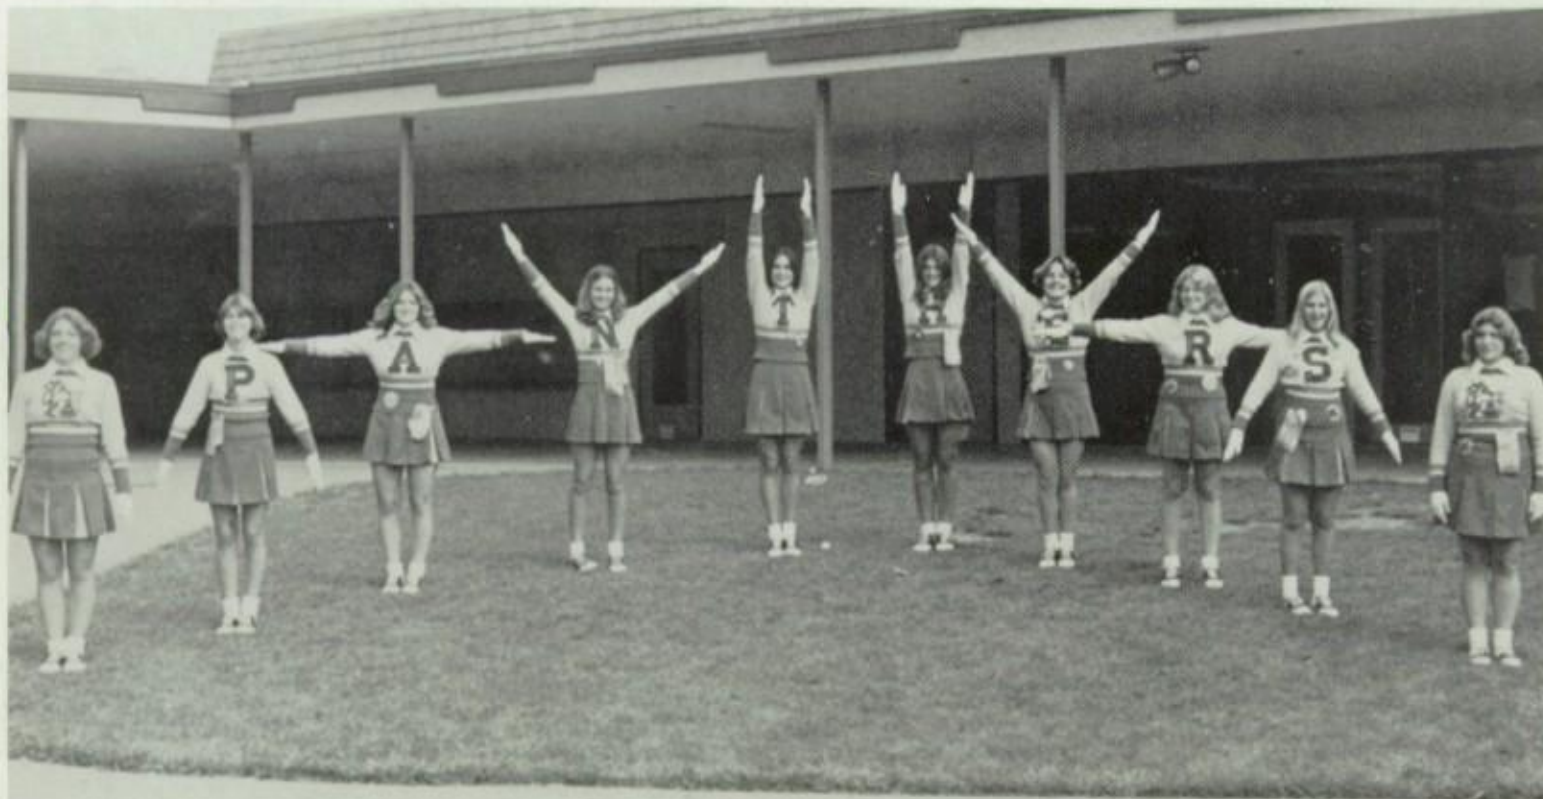

The 1976-77 Song Girls have worked extremely hard this year to make their dances original and creative. Their dances have ranged from "Freebird" to the "Looney Tunes," which have showed they have a lot of talent and skill and are a squad that shows a lot of group spirit.

Lettergirls

Members Include: Dawn McCullough, Nancy Miller, Anne Slominski, Suzanne Jones, Judy Brown, Becky Kazmierczak, Teri Sinnott, Yvette Barnes, Sue Reeves, Sherri Patti.

The return of the cheering and clapping Lettergirls to the Spirit Commission contributed to the general spirit at sports' events. The girls spent many long, hard hours planning and perfecting their routines. Their spark of enthusiasm was seen and heard throughout the fall football and winter basketball seasons.

 ndrix, Mary Lynn Curatolo, Debbie Parkes. BACK ROW: Jenny Erhardt, ky Imes, Anna Curatolo, Kathy Madole, Karry Imes, Lisa Erhardt, Dawn

This year the Pantherettes were a combination of flag and drill team. Marching with tall flags and dancing at half-time shows made for an interesting performance. The girls also received first place trophies at both the Saratoga Festival Parade and the Los Gatos Christmas Parade, which made them the undefeated drill team in parade marching.

Homecoming

Homecoming Week is dedicated to the promotion of school spirit. Starting with a pie eating contest and ending with the traditional Prospect vs Branham football game, the week was packed full of activities. A pie eating contest, egg toss and tricycle races were the activities throughout the week. During the lunch more activities took place, such as the auctioning of the Spirit Commission.

Wednesday morning the more dedicated members of each class started arriving at 4 a.m. to decorate their assigned hall. The finished results were judged before school began with the Senior Class of '77 who "did it better 'cause they've done it longer, coming out on top with 77 points.

At the end of the week, the Homecoming King and Queen were announced: Paul Caruso and Ellie Balettler with their court, Karen Pozzi, Liz Hard, Tim Edmunds, and Steve Hill.

The football game, homecoming for last year graduates, was played at Branham. In a very exciting game, Prospect lost to Branham, 27-26.

Barry, hi. We are half way (almost) through high school. I can't believe we are almost juniors. You are a super person Barry, you'll go far. Good luck in whatever you decide to do in life. I hope we have some classes together next year. Maybe I will see you in the summer, but if I don't, have a great one anyway.

P.S. English
wasn't fun? Ha Ha

Student banking problems are different.
Their bankers should be, too.

That's why Bank of America has Student Representatives close by at offices near major college campuses in California. They're always students or recent graduates themselves. So they know all about student banking problems. And how to solve them.

They know all the ways our College PlanSM can help you, too. So why not stop by and talk things over. Our Student Reps can make your banking easier.
Depend on us. More California college students do.

It's been a drag

Hope you have a blast

don't party too much. (not partying doesn't leave much to do, but try anyway)
Take care, and see
you next year.
